Hear From the Front Lines of Colombia!

Using the Internet, the Fellowship of Reconciliation and Witness for Peace are offering U.S. audiences the opportunity to virtually invite guest speakers to your classrooms, church groups, labor unions, and other community settings. Hear from people who live the everyday of international solidarity, face the pressing realities affecting Colombian communities, and understand how U.S. policies affect Latin America. Our speakers offer not only personal experience and professional expertise, but even better, they'll still be in Colombia while talking to you!

Topic themes we are currently offering include:
- The role of internationals in supporting Colombian nonviolent movements
- The role that international human rights structures play in the Colombian conflict
- History of Colombia: The conflict and social movements
- Antimilitarism in Colombia: the resistance of nonviolent youth to mandatory recruitment
- Mining in Colombia: Where Colombia's natural resources are going
- U.S. - Colombia Free Trade Agreement
- U.S.'s drug war in Colombia
- Future role of multinationals in Colombia
- Systematic persecution of journalists in Colombia
- The plight and struggle of the Sugar Cane Cutters
- Colombia's plan for land restitution

If we've piqued your interest, talk with your groups and allies to propose this opportunity. Then e-mail us at bogota@forusa.org to arrange a virtual meet-up.
